. . .THE
YEAR HAS ENDED

ORIENTATION

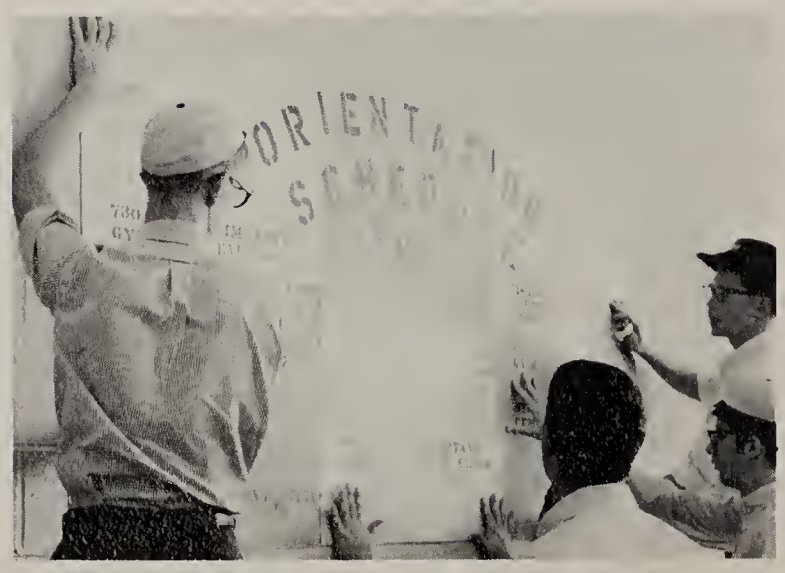
A new frontier of learning . . .
. . . new sights, new ideas, new thoughts . . .
. . . loneliness . . .
. . . a feeling of 'who am I?'



All you add is love.

Let me entertain you . . .

Happiness is having power . . . and admirers.

Chain, chain, chain, . . .

THE PICNIC

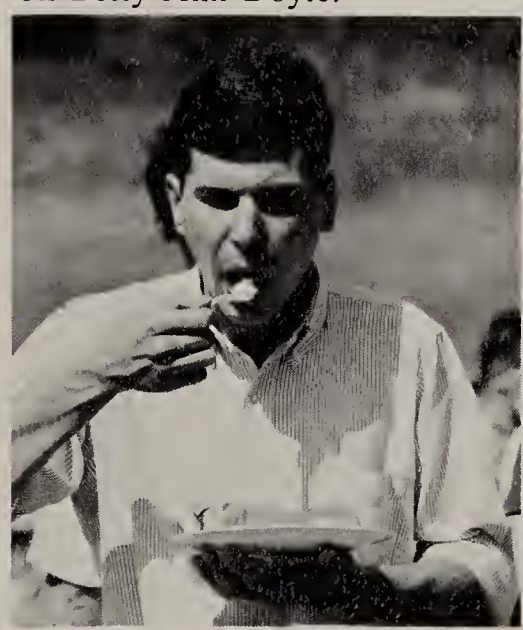
One, two, three, push!

Working their way to the top.

Broome Tech's new PHD (piled higher and deeper)

Ballet or Volleyball???

John Peterson uses some applied psychology on Betty Ann Doyle.



Bob Petrush decides it is not quite like mother's.

Ann Sheehan and Cassie Kaschak enjoy a miniature bonfire.

THE BONFIRE

KANGAROO COURT

"The Court" sits in judgement.

A frosh gets a taste of the "upper crust."

It seems that Marie Loscavio recalls being "thrown" into a lake by Keith Armentrout . . . .

Dove creams your skin while you wash.

HOOTENANNY

Fran Battisti is lauded with gift and applause.

Laughter is contagious; so Charlie Dornan discovers.

Music soothes the troubled minds of persecuted frosh, if it comes from Shelley and Paul.

ACTIVITIES FAIR

Frosh find out where it's at.

FRESHMEN

Here the lowly Frosh stands . . .
. . . ahead, a mountain of truth and learning . . .
. . . later to discover that the mountain is not so tall.

CANDIDS

"I would like a diamond right here, if no one objects," says Jack Shay.

Sue Webster looks as if she wonders what she'll do if she really catches it.

Wonder what tickles the fancy of Marty Ham?

Dave Henderson seems to have a "hold" on Jeannette Petkash.

Debbie Donald: only she could know what lies behind this expression.

John Benyi, Jim Hubbard and Keith Armentrout look on as Betty Cummings gets a "royal escort" from Larry Frechette.

It looks as if Fran Short is a little upset with the business he and Evelyn Rice are getting at the ticket office.

Fran Battisti seems to be causing Jan Walker some pain. . .or at least a lot of trouble.

Jan Craver: a study in freckles.

"Let me tell you, that last shower was really cold." exclaims Marie Loscavio.

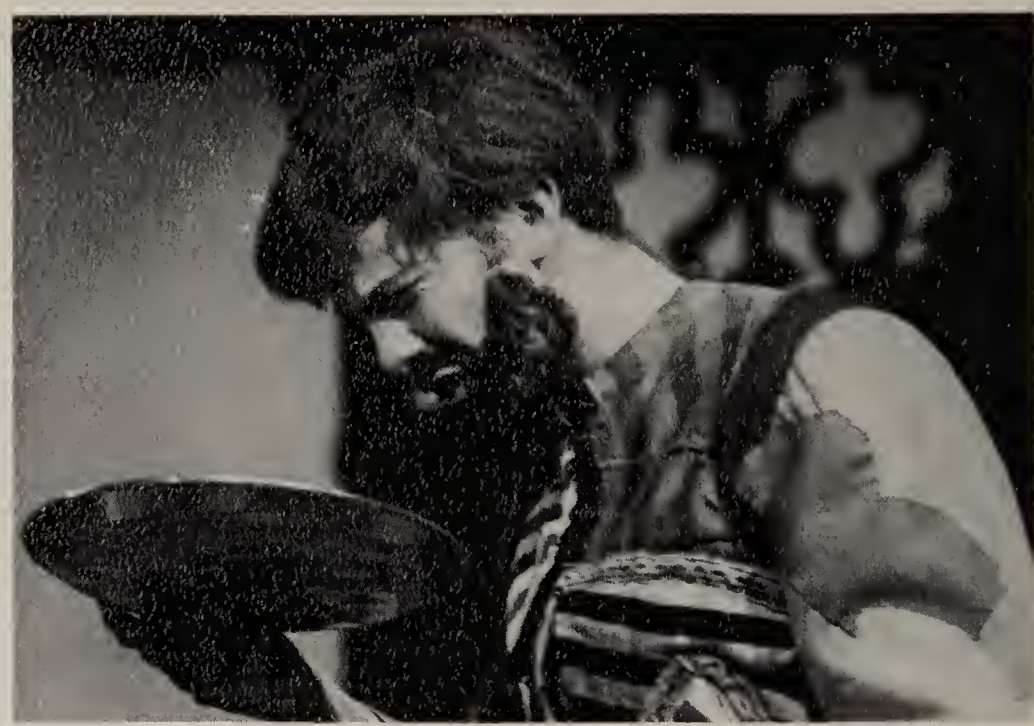
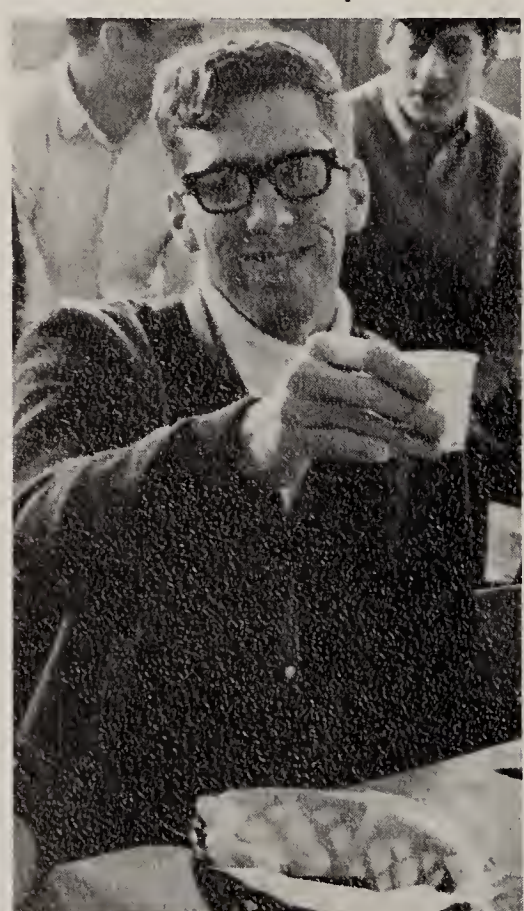
It looks as if Jeff Cicak enjoyed himself at the Student Council picnic.

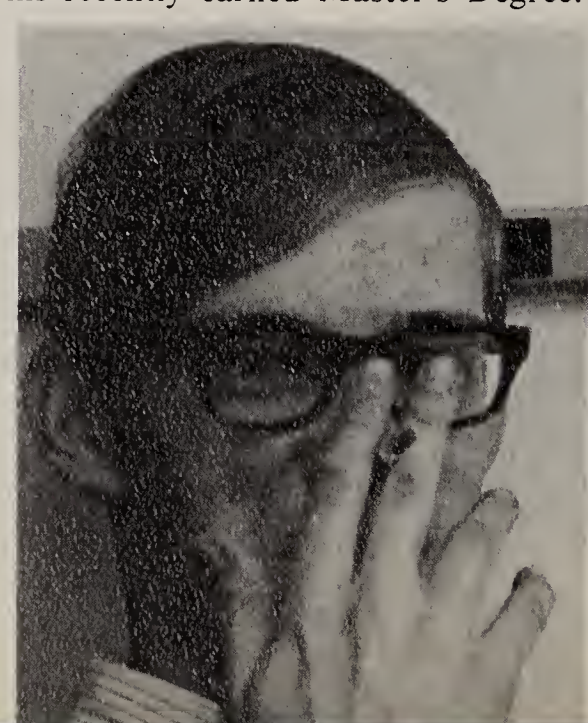


"What's this. . .mutton?" asks "Petruchio", David Henderson.

Mr. Greene, Mr. Church-Smith, and Mr. Johnson offer their congratulations to Mr. Drake at a little celebration "where it really swings" in honor of his recently earned Master's Degree.



Bob Vanek offers a cheery toast. . . .Wonder what he's celebrating now?



Did you know that Chris Slocum is a little "odd"? Not everyone smokes with their nose.

CANDIDS

You've heard of people getting involved with a hobby, haven't you? Well, here Wolfgang Tinz seems to be relishing a box of film. Okay!

Cass Kaschak....

Frank Streety, in his characteristic little hat, chats with Dean Powers in the SUB.

What could Brenda Parker ever have been saying to Judy Baker at the Camera Club picnic? Why, it must have been "Take it off, take it all off!"

CANDIDS

"But I swear I saw it," says Judy Spencer to Jim SantaLucia. "It was black with yellow spots on each of its 2374 legs."

Sara Meling.

Al Wells seems to think he's got something, but isn't quite sure what is is.

Mr. Cappellucci and son. . . like father, like son.

Tech's answer to Bonnie and Clyde . . . .Ruthie and Fran (Gdovin and Battisti, that is).

"Dog gone!" Or. . .Keith Armentrout and friend.

A WELCOME INNOVATION

THE PRESIDENT'S BREAKFAST

President Tyrrell speaks with the administrators, faculty members, and students who attended one of his breakfasts this year.

Many questions were asked and some answers were found. . . .Problems were discussed. . .a new feeling of achievement has developed through combined efforts of interested people . . . .Hopefully next year will see further accomplishments.

Dean Durst converses with several students and faculty members attending a breakfast.

BROOME TECH PLAYERS

Howard Miller, as a convicted murderer, tries to convince this girl, played by MaryAnn Kloda, that he is not her brother. It is a scene from "The Valiant".

Larry Frechettè portrays a perplexed prison warden in a scene from "The Valiant".

Karen Hedlund, Edwina Tomassi and Gene Cline discuss their relative positions when they discover in "No Exit" that they are in hell and there is indeed "no exit" from each other or from themselves.

Carla Aiken applies the finishing touches to Dave Henderson's make-up for his part in "Aria DaCapo".

Gremio (Steve Webb) and Tranio (Bob Hagin) argue about which one should have Bianca's hand, as her father, Baptista (Howard Miller) seems a little unsure of the whole situation.

Bianca (Marie Loscavio) turns to her father (Howard Miller) for protection from her "shrewish" sister, Kate (Rita Opie).

"TAMING of the SHREW"

Kate (Rita Opie) seems a little upset at advancements of her new husband, Petruchio (Dave Henderson). . .What a way to "tame" a shrew.

Kate seems to think she has the upper hand with Petruchio. . .and soon finds out differently.

A worried Baptista (Howard Miller) and daughter Bianca (Marie Loscavio).

Gary Valentine "gives a little". . .blood, that is, and for a good cause.

It was obvious that our old library just didn't have the room to accommodate, without crowding, all who needed to use it.

OUR NEW LIBRARY OPENS

in Spring — 1968

From all sides we watched our new campus addition grow. For some of us it meant 2 years of waiting and anticipation. . . .

. . .Moving day finally came and the months of work and preparation were ended. Broome Tech students at last have a place to study and work — a place they may proudly call their library.

Ernie Blake. . . .

"Bunnie" Donna Roden and friend.

"Listen Jack, if you'll only take my advice, you could really go far. . .in something like politics, for example," says Dave Goodwin.

CANDIDS

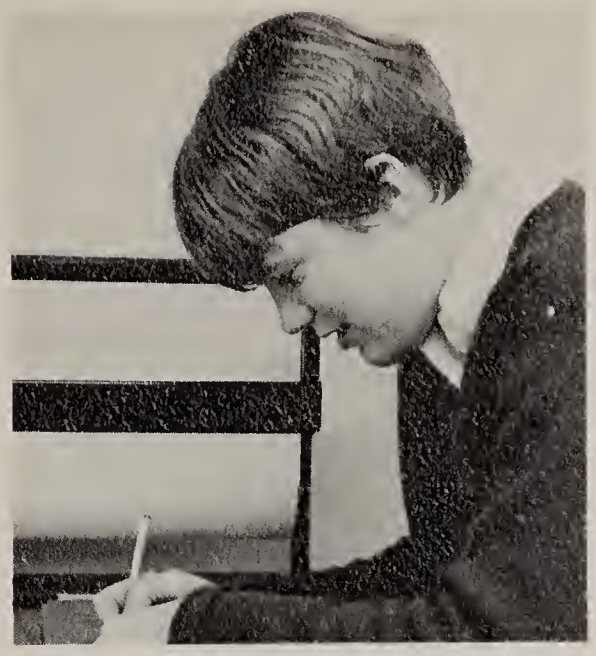
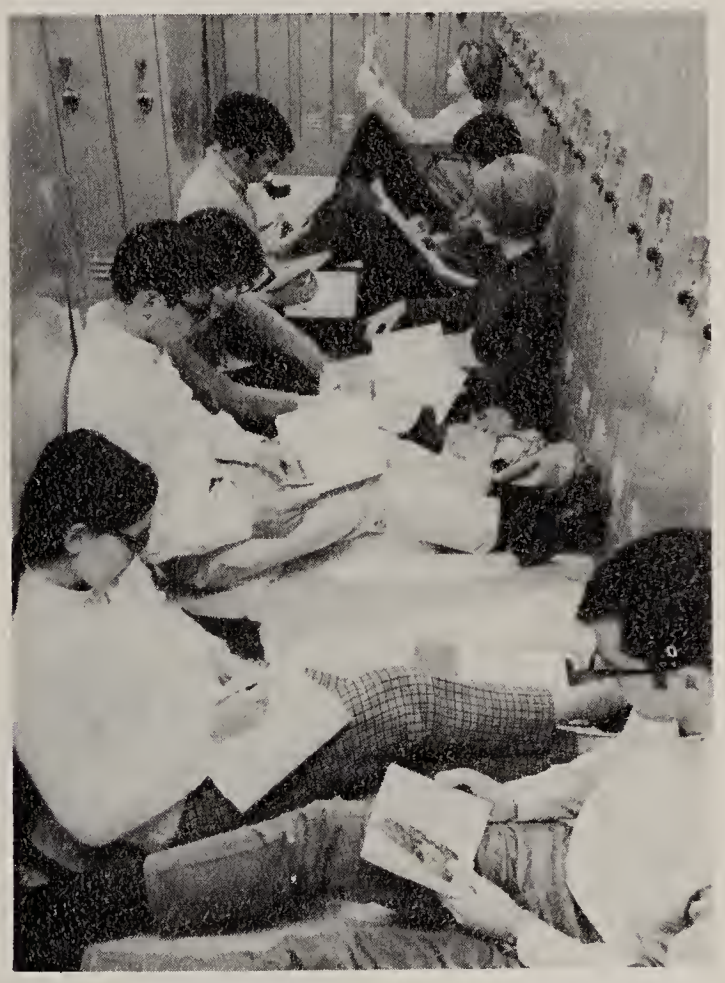
Mary Anne Kloda, Larry Frechette, Claire Chasse and Howard Miller take a "romp" during the Camera Club picnic.



Cathy Conant does "something".

"That nasty old mosquito landed right on my arm and had the gall to go so far as to bite me," sighs Mr. Sunshine.

Looks as if someone missed the Christmas tree and decorated Ron Whalen.



This has all the appearances of being an exam week around Titchner. . . .The cramming comes most of the time and almost anywhere you find a student.

Sandy Baldwin's reaction to Dick Norton's attire?. . . "I see it, but I don't believe it."

SOCIAL

Making new friends. . .
endless study. . .gaiety
. . .fun. . .
lasting memories.

CAMPUS ROYALTY

'68 STYLE

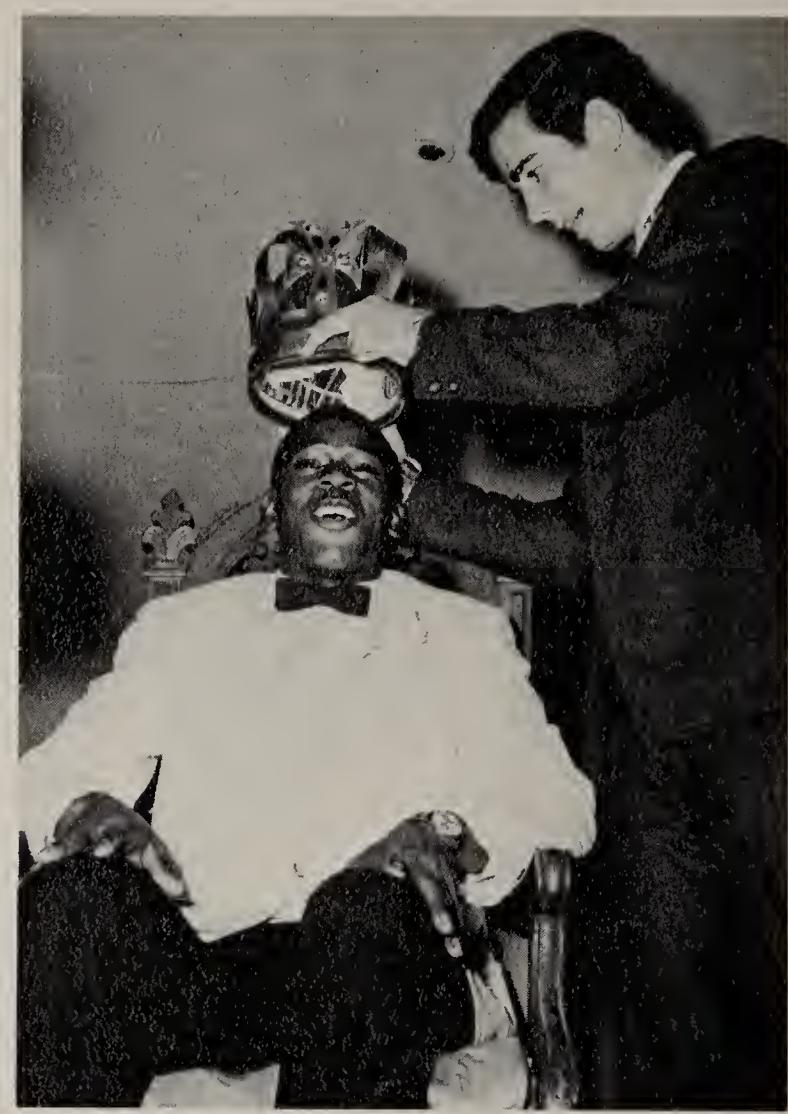
KING TECH

Frank Streety

QUEEN of HEARTS

Nancy Gahagan

Frank expresses pleasant surprise at being named King Tech while the other candidates and their dates applaud the decision.



Frank Streety receives his crown from last year's King Tech, John Casella.

Candidate Daryl Hendery and his date Denise Haluska.

Candidate Dan Hendery and his date Margaret Fitzsimmons.

Candidate Neil Hess and his date Linda Bryski.

KING TECH

Frank Streety and his date, Barbara Bryant, descend from the throne. . .

. . .to celebrate with the first dance.

Candidate Fran Battisti and his date Sandy Baldwin.

FALL WEEKEND

THE BYRDS

Three "Byrds" out of the five-member group flew in to perform for the audience.

MARIANO and the UNBELIEVABLES

Mariano.

The audience proved to be very receptive to, and pleased with, the performance of Mariano and his Unbelievables. Their style of "classical rock" music was new and interesting and very well received.

WINTER WEEKEND

Anthony and the Imperials proved to be a big hit with the audience. Their enthusiasm and talent held the audience in complete attention for the entire concert and they were sent off with a very appreciative round of applause.

Anthony.

ANTHONY and the IMPERIALS

QUEEN of HEARTS

Candidate Joyce Zimmer and her escort Dave Duck.

Queen of Hearts, Nancy Gahagan, receives her roses from Gary Chudachek and her crown from last year's queen, Ann Miller, as her escort, Bill Grace, smiles on approvingly.

Candidate Vicki Cole and her escort Rick Halter.

Candidate Pat Foley and her escort Gary Hobart.

Candidate Mary Weston and her escort Mark Cicak.

Nancy expresses a "little" surprise at being chosen queen. . .

. . .receives her crown from Ann Miller. . .

. . .descends from the throne as the other candidates look on. . .

. . .and happily celebrates with a "victory" dance with her escort, Bill Grace.

ARTIST

THE GLENN MILLER ORCHESTRA

"A WILDE EVENING WITH SHAW"

Robert Gray and Mayo Loiseau gave stirring performances in their presentation of famous passages from the life and works of Oscar Wilde and George Bernard Shaw.

SERIES

Josh White Jr. . . .a superb entertainer.

JOSH WHITE JR.

No, not Dr. Jeckle and Mr. Hyde, just the comic (left) and serious (above) sides of concert-humorist, Henry L. Scott.

HENRY SCOTT

SENIOR DINNER-DANCE

The Sr. Dinner-Dance, featuring Count Basie and his orchestra, was held at the Fountains Pavilion.

Mr. Casella and his wife listen to Mr. John Huther, the main speaker of the evening, who proved to be quiet a humorous, as well as an interesting, speaker.

Mr. Casella served as Master of Ceremonies for the dance.

Seniors look over Class rings with company representative.

Mrs. Campo. . .anybody sick?

CANDIDS

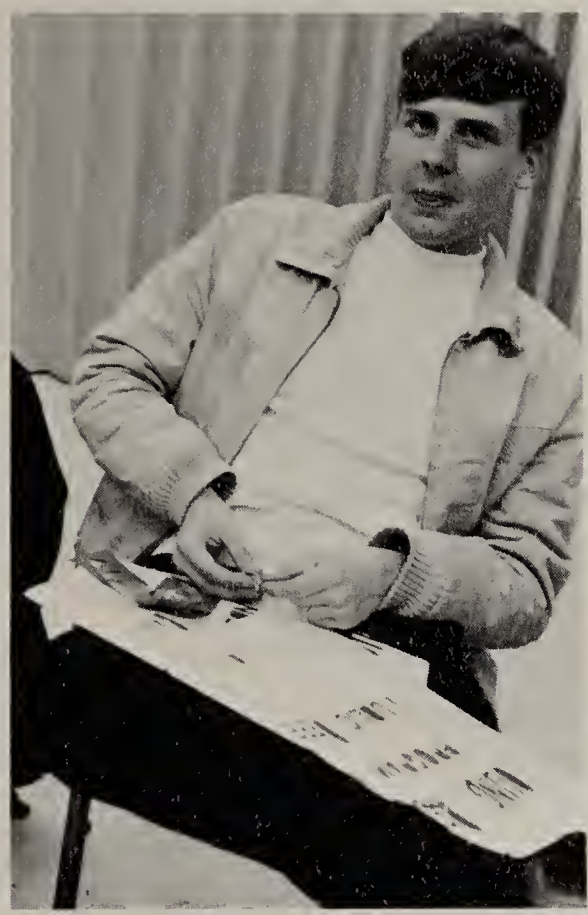
Dick Norton seems to be trying to say something.

Hmm! Rita Cherney, John Benyi and Dave Woodworth. . . .

OKAY!



Jack Shay looks a little "tipsy". . . .

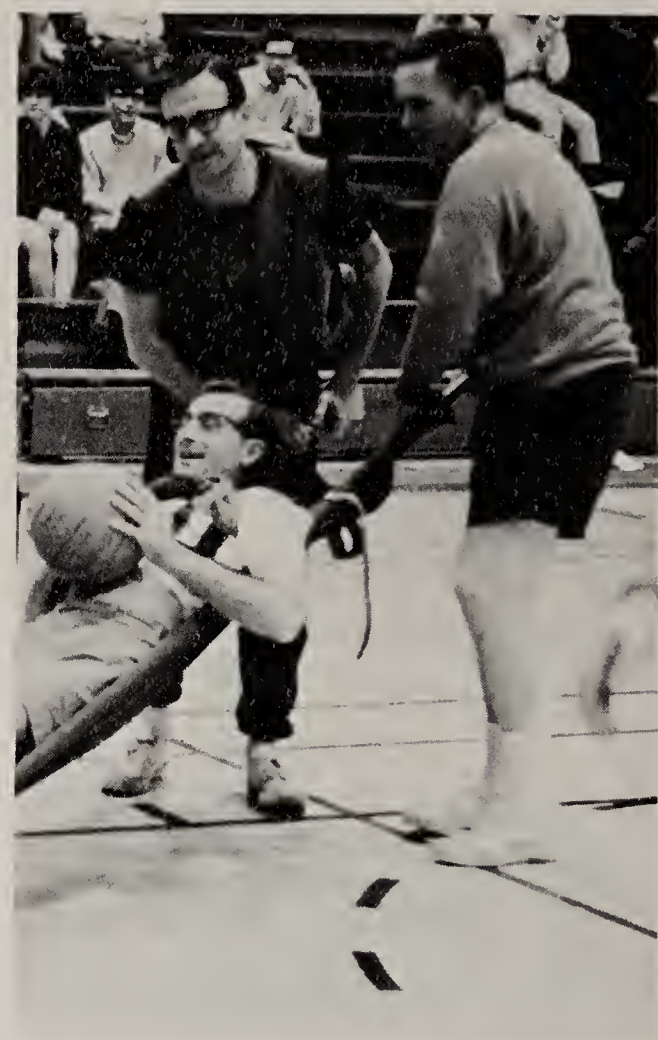
Could be the end of a beautiful friendship for Al Balchikonis and Fran Battisti.

It seems that Mr. Korducavich prefers to hold lectures in the hall.

Some people will try almost anything to shut somebody up, as Rita Opie found out.

Dave Kane

Sue Wield



Mr. MacGregor receives aid in distress from Mr. Canale and Mr. Powers.

CANDIDS

Dave Henderson offers his "Sunday go meetin'" hat to one of the cafeteria staff members. She certainly looks better in it than he does.

AWARDS

The following awards were presented for outstanding performances:

GRADUATION

A thrilling culmination. . .
two hard years behind. . . .

The final goodbye to our Alma Mater. . . .A beginning.

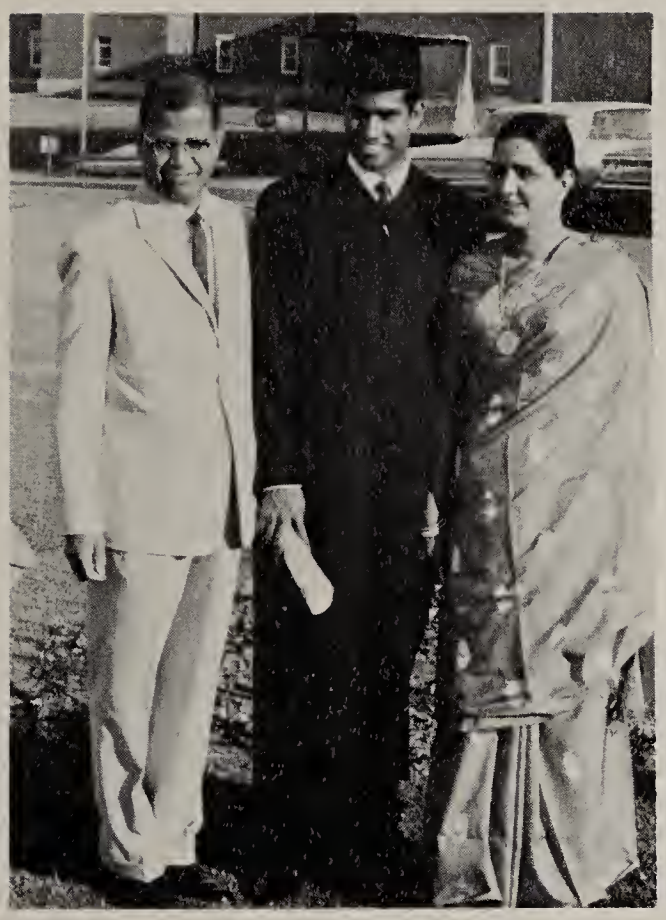
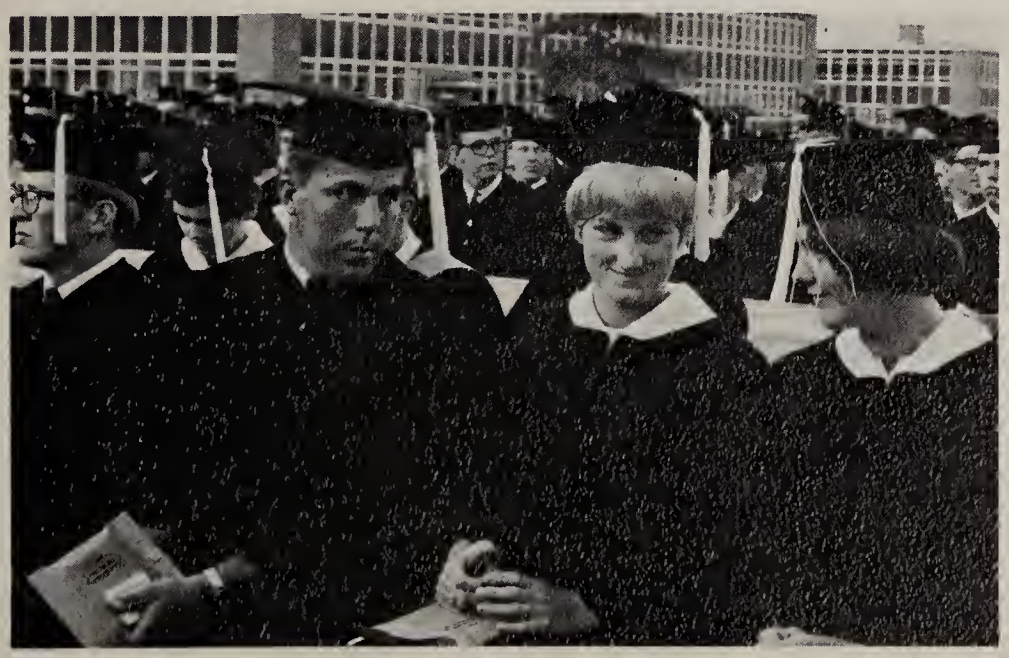
Commencement speaker, Mr. Edwin L. Crawford, Chairman of the Broome County Board of Supervisors.



Sam Nagraj poses proudly with his parents, who had just arrived from Italy, only moments before commencement began.

These four students earned the top cumulative averages for the Class of '68. Left to right: Tom Zimniewicz (PE, 3.79); Rosemary Harvilla (SC, 3.76); Andrea Truchan (SC, 3.82); and Edwin Dufur (LA, 3.88).



Ron Briggs, Teri Brown, and Emily Cahoon express various emotions. . .probably all forms of disbelief.

Faculty members, Mr. Beagle and Mr. Baldwin, pose with their graduating daughters, Betsy and Judy, both LA students.

Mike Guley receives his alumni plaque, one of which was given to each graduate.

This little girl seems apprehensive about the whole thing and seems to wonder if she'll ever make it this far.

Photographer, John Young, is caught "shooting", while members of the Board of Education listen to the speech with varying moods.

GRADUATION

Mrs. Campo and Father Bebel seem to be enjoying some thought. . . .Could they be discussing Mr. Crawford's speech?

Joyce Zimmer happily receives her diploma from Mr. Wales, Chairman of the Board of Trustees.

Faculty members show various forms of interest and/ or disinterest in the commencement proceedings.

GRADUATION

It looks like joy for Kathy Cascio and Rita Cherney.

"Does my slip still show?"

This little boy seems to wonder if he might get away with one more cookie at the reception following graduation.

As the year ends, so does the book containing but brief snatches of its history. It is our hope that this journal will preserve and enhance many memories of that year as you look through its pages now. . .and in years to come.

Farewell. . . .
